

Parish Announcements for the week of February 5, 2012

Today: Sacramental Healing is available in the chapel during each service during the administration of Holy Communion - to participate come to communion early and then go directly to the chapel. Nursery Care is available on the Upper Level during the service today.

We pray the seventh of the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs): to ensure environmental stability.

Let's celebrate the February birthdays of our intergenerational sisters in Christ and gather at the home of Maggie McClure on Tuesday, February 7 at 6:30 pm for food, fellowship and general merriment. Maggie will provide the main course and soft drinks, tea, and coffee. Contributions of a salad, bread, a dessert, or wine are welcomed. Please let Maggie 765-567-2512 or Cresta Cates 765-225-1596 know if you plan to come so we have a rough estimate of how much food is needed. If you find yourself free on the 7th, please join us. The more, the merrier.

This Wednesday at 12:10 p.m. is the Lunchtime Concert for February. Local trumpeter Bruce Knepper will be performing music by great musicians such as John Philip Sousa, and several others. It will be a very fun concert with many "audience appeal" selections. Hope to see you there!

Join the Book Discussion on Wednesday, February 15 for a light-hearted look at the (fictional) parish of the Friends church in the (fictional) town of Harmony. We will discuss Philip Gulley's series of books about the joys, sorrows, and predicaments of the pastor and his parish. The series starts with Home to Harmony, but read any or all of them. Robert L'Homme will lead the discussion.

Volunteers are needed for the the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper on February 21. Sign up sheets are now posted in the Parish Commons. Jobs include ticket sales, kitchen and serving help, and clean up. Folks will be needed for setup as well. Please note that setup is scheduled for MONDAY afternoon, February 20 at 3:45 p.m. If you have any questions see Randy and Georgia Brist, or Bruce and Kathy Johnson.

Lenten Home Eucharists are part of our Lenten Observance this year, and the first home Eucharist is on Wednesday, February 29, at 6:00 p.m. at the home of Greg Buzzard and Hilary Cooke. There are sign-up sheets in the Commons beginning today. Please sign up if you would like to host one of the four remaining Wednesday evenings, March 7, 14, 21, 28. Please sign up for evenings when you can attend, one or all. Other information is also posted with the sign-up sheets.
