The First Reading

R A reading from Isaiah.
Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness,
you that seek the Lord.
Look to the rock from which you were hewn,
and to the quarry from which you were dug.
Look to Abraham your father
and to Sarah who bore you;
for he was but one when I called him,
but I blessed him and made him many.
For the Lord will comfort Zion;
he will comfort all her waste places,
and will make her wilderness like Eden,
her desert like the garden of the Lord;
joy and gladness will be found in her,
thanksgiving and the voice of song.
Listen to me, my people,
and give heed to me, my nation;
for a teaching will go out from me,
and my justice for a light to the peoples.
I will bring near my deliverance swiftly,
my salvation has gone out
and my arms will rule the peoples;
the coastlands wait for me,
and for my arm they hope.
Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
and look at the earth beneath;
for the heavens will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment,
and those who live on it will die like gnats;
but my salvation will be for ever,
and my deliverance will never be ended.

R The Word of the Lord.

Isaiah 51:1-6

Psalm 138Confitebor tibiThe psalm is read as directed.*

1. I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
2. I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;
3. For you have glorified your Name *
and your word above all things.
4. When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
5. All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
6. They will sing of the ways of the Lord, *
that great is the glory of the Lord.
7. Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
8. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
9. The Lord will make good his purpose for me; *
O Lord, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands..

The Second Reading

Romans 12:1-8

R A reading from Romans.

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God-- what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Matthew 16:13-20

R The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.C Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

In praise of the one God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, let us lift our prayers saying: Holy God, hear us.

For the spirit of hope in the future, that we and all who have died may drink of the fruit of the vine in glory; for Jane, those buried in the St. John's Memorial Garden, and those we name now either silently or aloud..., that they may rest in the peace of the divine community, we pray.

Holy God, hear us.The presider concludes the prayers*

Communion of the People – please read

The consecrated Bread and Wine are living signs of the presence of Christ in this gathering. All Baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion; however, no one who comes forward will be refused. If you would like a gluten-free wafer, please ask when you receive. If it is not your custom to receive Communion, you are welcome to receive a blessing. Please indicate your desire for a blessing by placing both hands on your shoulders in a crossed position.

Wine is offered in the common cup. If you would prefer not to receive from the common cup for any reason, please know that the fullness of Communion is available to anyone receiving either the consecrated bread or wine alone. Because of the increased possibility of contamination, we ask communicants not to intinct or dip the bread in the wine.
